

MAN Turbo Executive Board members resign their positions

Munich, December 11, 2009

Dr. Gerhard Reiff and Dr. Stephan Funke, Executive Board members of MAN Turbo AG, today resigned their positions at their own request.

Both emphasized that in doing so they wanted to clear the way for new management, explaining that the company's greatest possible performance came first for them.

Dr. Reiff has been on MAN Turbo's Executive Board since 2005 and was most recently responsible for the Oil & Gas division. Dr. Funke joined the company in 1996 and became the Executive Board member responsible for management control activities in 2007.

The Supervisory Board of MAN Turbo AG greatly respects these decisions. It thanks both Dr. Reiff and Dr. Funke for their work and the major role that they have played in advancing the company.
