

MAN Latin America voted Company of the Year in Brazil

Munich, December 01, 2010

MAN wins prizes for best manager and best truck of 2010

MAN Latin America has scooped three accolades in the Autodata Awards in Sao Paulo: Readers of Brazilian trade magazine Autodata voted MAN "Company of the Year" in the automotive industry. The 24.250 6x4 Constellation truck was also crowned "Truck of the Year" while MAN Latin America President Roberto Cortes was named "Personality of the Year". The three accolades saw MAN Latin America emerge as one of the top winners in the awards.

"Autodata's recognition is particularly important because it reflects the opinions in our industry. Manufacturers, automotive suppliers and various service providers are all involved in the voting. The awards top off a very special year, in which we have seen record production and sales, and belong to all our employees for this reason," said Roberto Cortes, who is also a member of Munich-based MAN SE's Management Board.
